

Ellen Amadio-Aubuchon Receives Fidelity Bank's "Mission Accomplished" Award

Senior Vice President and Chief Human Resource Officer Honored at Fidelity Bank's 2011 Annual Meeting

Leominster, MA – March XX, 2011– Fidelity Bank, one of the oldest and fastest-growing independent community banks in Central Massachusetts, recently awarded the Bank's coveted "Mission Accomplished" award for 2011 to Senior Vice President and Human Resource Director, Ellen Amadio-Aubuchon. The yearly honor was a highlight of the Bank's recent annual meeting held on February 8, 2011 at the 4 Points Sheraton located in Leominster.

Ms. Amadio-Aubuchon, who has been with Fidelity Bank for 12 years as the head of human resources, was presented the Bank's highest honor by Fidelity Bank Chairman & CEO Edward F. Manzi, Jr. The "Mission Accomplished" award is given to the Fidelity Bank employee who has demonstrated outstanding professional performance and noteworthy achievements during the past year. The "Mission Accomplished" Award presentation has been an annual tradition at the 123-year old financial institution since 2000.

"The 'Mission Accomplished' Award was created to recognize the person who lives and breathes our Mission Statement every day and is the personification of the bank with a heart," commented Edward F. Manzi, Jr., Chairman and CEO, Fidelity Bank. "This includes an unwavering dedication to assisting our clients, our community, and fellow employees -- day in and day out -- in getting where they want to be. During a year of great growth, change, and challenge at Fidelity Bank, Ellen has gone above and beyond in meeting these goals. Her cooperative spirit and professionalism makes us all here both pleased and proud to call her our colleague. She is truly a banker with a heart."

As the Chief Human Resource Officer, Ms. Amadio-Aubuchon provides leadership and guidance to the Human Resource function by overseeing talent acquisition, career development, retention, training and development, compensation and benefits.

A resident of Leominster, Ms. Amadio-Aubuchon is on the advisory board of Seven Hills Foundation; a member North Central MA Chamber of Commerce Human Resource Group; and a Volunteer – for the United Way and Loaves and Fishes
